

2 Writing from Notes

I. Am $\frac{1}{4}$ horse = Spanish + English

1. run, 55 mph, short, distances

2. $\frac{1}{4}$ mi, faster, other, breeds

3. ranchers, ☺, stop, quickly

4. helpful, herding, cattle

5. Am $\frac{1}{4}$ horse, ++ popular, US

Most Popular Horses

The American Quarter Horse is part Spanish and part English. It can run up to fifty-five miles per hour for short distances. It runs a quarter mile faster than other breeds. Ranchers love that it stops quickly. It is helpful for herding cattle. The American Quarter Horse is the most popular horse in the United States.

Title repeats one to three key words from final sentence.

Name _____

Date _____

Center Title _____

Write the paragraph from the KWO. Write complete sentences. Double-space the composition. Follow the title rule.

STRUCTURE

- ☒ name and date
- ☒ double-spaced
- ☒ title rule

STYLE

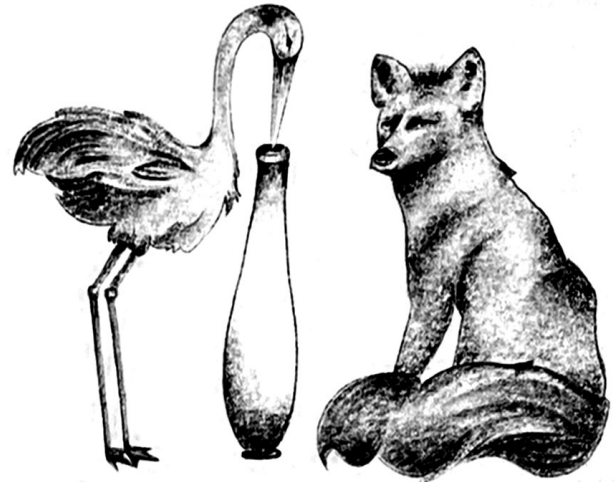

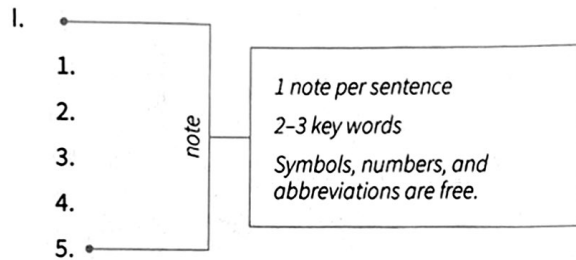

- ☐ -ly adverb

MECHANICS

- ☒ capitalization
- ☐ punctuation

Do what you check.
Check what you do.

StructureKWO*Paragraph*The Fox and the Stork

- I. F, invited, S, soup, shallow
1. F, easily, S, X bill, hungry
2. S, invited, F, meal
3. dinner, tall, small
4. S, bill, easily, F, lick
5. F, →, disappointed, hungry
6. received, deserved,
-- treatment, S

The KWO becomes the paragraph.

Write 1 note per sentence.

A fox invited a stork for dinner and served soup in a shallow bowl. The fox easily ate the soup, but the stork could not use his long bill to eat, so he left hungry. Another day the stork invited the fox for a meal. He served the food in a tall jar with a small mouth. The stork easily ate the meal, but the fox could only lick the rim of the jar. The fox left disappointed and hungry. On his way home he realized that he received what he deserved because he had treated the stork unkindly.

Students use their KWO to write their rough draft. The blue words in the paragraph reflect the words on the KWO.