

Lessons to Practice—Review

Prepositional Phrases—Adverbial

1. Analyze the following sentences: (S = subject; PV = predicate verb; hv = helping verb; adv = adverb; adj = adjective; do = direct object; p = preposition; op = object of the preposition; prep = prepositional phrase).

a. Icicles slowly dripped (from the rooftop) outside.

b. The tiny snowflakes are dancing (around the pine tree) too.

c. Did Jack Frost paint (on the window) those icy designs?

d. Now the winter winds are blowing the snow (into giant drifts),

2. On the lines provided, correct all of the following sentences by rewriting them with the proper capitalization and punctuation. Remember that the months of the year are proper nouns.

a. red and white roses creep along the wooden fences in june

Red and white roses creep along the wooden fences in June.

Lessons to Practice—Review

Prepositional Phrases—Adverbial

b. orange pumpkins grow rounder during colorful october

Orange pumpkins grow rounder during colorful October.

c. will may be robed in her flowered dress once more

Will May be robed in her flowered dress once more?

d. holly and ivy are twisted into wreaths in december

Holly and ivy are twisted into wreaths in December.

3. List nine prepositions. Answers will vary. See the preposition list on p. 79.

